

Lockout/Tagout Flow

This flow diagram outlines the required steps before servicing the hydraulic unit.

Follow arrows; service cannot start until the green status light is confirmed.

After the access door is closed, power can be restored and the operator should confirm the status light is green before starting service.